

Stylish coffee table with metal legs

A classic and stylish coffee table with a wooden top and well-designed metal legs. Its classical design makes it easy to combine with other interior design for a uniform look.

Can be used for both short work meetings or social occasions, as a coffee table for coffee breaks, or a side table in shared areas of the office. Combine with soft seating such as sofas and easy chairs, and create inviting spaces in receptions and lounges, or a rest area within the rest of the working environment. Combining coffee tables in groups creates attractive combinations that inspire creative conversations and productive meetings.

The table is comprised of only a few components that can be replaced, separated, and recycled, making it circular and sustainable in the long term.
